TUDOR GROUP

As a family-run business that traces its roots back more than a generation, you can trust that we will always be at the side of our customers.

Established in 1989 by Mark Tudor, Tudor Group offers three core services to help with the most important financial decisions you're ever likely to face - from selling and buying your home, to making safe financial decisions about your savings, investments and retirement, to providing all the advice and insight you need to make sure your business is the best it can be.

Our services:

■ Tudor Financial Consultants - experienced financial consultants who will take care of all your financial needs, from the best mortgages for buying your new home, to investing for and protecting your financial future.

■ Tudor Commercial Finance - experts who will help you with your business plans, whether that's the start-up you've always dreamed of, refinancing, or expanding your current business and making new acquisitions.

■ Tudor Sales and Lettings - property professionals who will look after all your buying, selling and lettings needs, supporting you every step of the way.

So, when it comes to your finances, let our family support your family to make the very best decisions.

TUDOR | Financial Consultants

When it comes to making decisions that affect your future and your family's future, you need to be sure you're acting on sound advice from experts you can trust.

After being established in 1989 by Mark Tudor, Chris Tudor joined the business in 2003 and became a qualified adviser, followed by Sam Tudor in 2015 when he gained his mortgage adviser qualification.

Over the years our team, experience, and expertise has grown and grown but, at heart, we're a family affair, committed to giving you and your family the very best advice and support we can.

- Residential mortgages
- Buy to let mortgages
- Protection
- Pensions
- Investments
- General insurance
- Equity Release/Lifetime Mortgage

We'll make sure you have the best options available using our extensive range of contacts and relationships.

TUDOR | Sales & Lettings

We know that when it comes to buying, selling, and renting, everyone is different.

That's why our approach is different.

Since 2008, our team of excellent property professionals have been offering a tailored service to meet the needs of our customers, always looking for innovative and efficient ways to work within the sales and rental markets.

We know you'll have concerns – we will listen and use our extensive experience to make sure we guide and support you through the process from start to finish.

Our team can help with:

- Valuing your property for sale
- Managing the whole sales process, from advertising and securing viewings, through to getting you the best price
- Helping you buy your perfect new home
- Letting out your residential or commercial property

We are a multi-award winning proud member of the Association of Residential Letting Agents (ARLA), and the Property Ombudsman Scheme. Our Licenced Membership of ARLA is a safeguard and gives you the peace of mind that you are dealing with a professional agency.
